

WHAT PAGE ARE YOU ON?

Get your book today and join us for Capital City Reads!

Literacy and education matter from the end of the road in Pakistan and Afghanistan to Carson City, Nevada. Join us for our 2010 Capital City Reads: Three Cups of Tea. The project hopes to engage every part of our community to read, discuss and enjoy this book.

- Sara Jones, Carson City Library Director
P.S. I'm on page 98!

"I've learned that terror doesn't happen because some group of people somewhere like Pakistan or Afghanistan simply decide to hate us. It happens because children aren't being offered a bright enough future that they have a reason to choose life over death."

- Greg Mortenson

Tuesday Programs begin at 6:30pm

All seating first come-first served unless noted.

February

Tuesday 9th

Galaxy Theatre
Rick Gunn Soul Cyler:
A multi-media presentation

Tuesday 16th

Carson City Library
Toni Neubauer READ/Global
"War, Development & Libraries"

Tuesday 23rd

Carson City Library
Todd Offenbacher,
Mountain Climber
"Return to Pakistan"

March

Tuesday 2nd

Carson City Library
Ruth Anne Kocour, Author
Adventurer & Photographer

Tuesday 9th

Carson Nugget
Greg Mortenson
Author & Humanitarian
(No Tickets Available)

Tuesday 16th

Carson City Library
Sara Jones, Library Director
"Three Cups of Tea" discussion

Tuesday 23rd

Carson City Library
Sara Jones, Library Director
"Stones into Schools" discussion

Tuesday 30th

Carson City Library
Carson Montessori School
"A Reenactment"

April

Tuesday 6th

Judith Frey, Producer
"The Silk Road: Music, Art &
Poetry from Istanbul to Samarqand

Tuesday 13th

Carson City Library
Panel Discussion
Capital City Reads
Three Cups of Tea Review

Wednesday 14th

Carson City Library
Marine Corp Mountain
Warfare Training Center

Thursday 15th

Carson City Library
Charlie Wilson's War

Worlds Connect

Carson City Library
Reading - Learning - Making a Difference

www.carsoncitylibrary.org (775) 887-2244

