c) Overview of accomplishments and goals not met in the 2009-2013 Strategic Plan: A Place for Everyone. Library Director Sara Jones gave an overview of the current goals:
   i. The Carson City Library will be a community gathering place.
   ii. The Carson City Library will provide exceptional community service to everyone.

      The automated services helped the library increase hours, and a huge effort was made to walk patrons through every step of the automated system process. Library staff takes the role of exceptional customer service very seriously.

   iii. The Carson City Library will proactively seek, expand and maintain collaborations.

   iv. The BRIC is another good collaboration center. Collaboration is what the library needs to be thinking about while constructing the next strategic plan.

   v. The Carson City Library will dramatically increase awareness of the library’s resources and services.

      Kudos to Youth Librarian Amber Sady for doing community outreach with all of the Carson City schools and helping them with the online, library databases such as Homework Help.

   vi. The Carson City Library will train, encourage, reward and celebrate a knowledgeable and dedicated staff, generous volunteers and vital support organizations.

      The library does a very good job and needs to think of ways to continue to do that. The Friends and the Foundation are an invaluable help to the library.

   vii. The Carson City Library will provide the materials and resources the Community wants and needs.
Lynda.com was one example of a wonderful resource for helping the community.
The library continues to provide high-demand materials in several formats.

viii. The Carson City Library will continue to expand and improve technology and access to the Internet.
       Automated materials handling continues to make handling of materials more efficient.
       The @Two media lab continues to offer many enrichment activities for Carson City patrons.

ix. The Carson City Library will provide a place that improves and enhances the quality of life for everyone in Carson City and for every visitor to Carson City.

d) Brainstorming session for 2014-2019 strategic plan, including its structure, goals, and objectives:

iv. Review of suggested timeline and meeting locations necessary to adopt a plan by September 2013. A current strategic plan is a requirement for applying for state and federal grants and the current plan expires December 2013.

   Library Director Sara Jones gave the following report:

   i. Grants/Support: We are pursuing a grant to build cabinets and shelving for the Mark Twain collection. We will need to find someone to store what we can’t display but the gift to the library was permanent. We are working with the donor to find a way to accept his gift and make his direction for public use and display possible. We have met several times the last few months with the donor and been in contact with a rare book appraiser.

   ii. @Two Digital Learning Center: Completing training for other libraries in the Cooperative Libraries Automated Network (CLAN) as required by the BTOP grant. Churchill County attended training last week. Elko is scheduled in May.

Aubree Burkholder resigned as the Library Assistant III; we are lucky because she is able to help with meetings until we get the new hire for the Library Assistant III position, Alicia Stimka, who will start on May 13, 2013. In addition to her other duties she will be the Recording Secretary.

As all of you know we lost Richard Leuthauser first of this month, and we are in the recruitment process for his position.

I announced my retirement this year with 25 years of service in Nevada and my acceptance of the position of Director of Library Services in Marin County. I will work through the first week of July, and as promised will assist with the completion of the strategic plan and any assistance the Board would like from me in the recruiting process.
